THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 26, 1983

Dear Mr. Casey,

In case anybody hasn't told you lately you're doing a hell of a job

You're really carrying the burden and we are all grateful. I also think we are going to win. That feeling stems from just a general intuition as well as the realization that you hate to lose. By the way, I think the Time's retraction will help stop the "juggernaut effect" that tends to build up in the press about an issue, so it was helpful. I did stop by the OSS reception but had to move along before you arrived. I hear it was a great party. I am terribly sorry I could not attend but I had a long standing engagement with Jim Buckley who, by the way, is doing great works and is in fine spirits.

Best regards,

Tay
